

Application for Appointment to the Wells Branch Community Library District Board of Trustees

Trustee terms are for two years. If a trustee must vacate a position before his/her term is complete, another eligible person may be appointed to complete the term. In order to be eligible, you must be a registered voter, live within the boundaries of the library district and be willing to give your time and energy. Trustees typically give several hours per week. Additionally, trustees are expected to serve on committees and must be able to attend monthly meetings. Trustees may be called upon at any time to represent the library. The Board of Trustees is unpaid.
